INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR TERMS: init. _____
Applicant is hereby considered an Independent Contractor of VisionPulse and it's affiliated businesses (Client)

1. Services To Be Performed.

Contractor agrees to perform the following services for Client to include but not limited to:

- Sales Representative;
- Designer for VisionPulse;
- Benefits Development Representative of ClubAlliance Benefits Network;
- Other: _____

Each of which may entail prospecting, servicing, project development, selling and registering Client's business clients and customers.

2. Time For Performance.

Contractor to complete the performance of these services at his/her own discretion, however it is Contractors responsibility to know the deadlines, release dates, and sales reporting dates and procedures.

3. Payment.

Contractor acknowledges receipt of the "Compensation Schedule".

In consideration of Contractor's performance of these services, Client agrees to pay Contractor as detailed in the "Compensation Schedule". It is acknowledged that the sales pricing and commission compensation may change from time to time as updated Compensation Schedules are produced. All compensation for sales transacted prior to any changes in the Compensation Schedule will be calculated based on the then current Compensation Schedule at the time of the sale.

4. Invoices.

Contractor will submit invoices to Client for all services performed.

5. Independent Contractor.

The parties intend Contractor to be an independent contractor in the performance of these services. Contractor shall have the right to control and determine the method and means of performing the above services; Client shall not have the right to control or determine such method or means.

6. Other Clients.

Contractor retains the right to perform services for other clients so long as these services do not cause conflict of interests and Non-Disclosure agreement principles are not compromised.

7. Non-Disclosure Agreement

The undersigned acknowledges that Client has furnished to the Contractor certain proprietary data ("Confidential Information") relating to the business affairs and operations of Client for study and evaluation by that individual for the purpose of possible involvement with Client.

It is acknowledged that the information provided by Client to Contractor is confidential; therefore, Contractor agrees not to disclose it and not to disclose that any discussions or contracts with the Client have occurred or are intended, other than as provided for in the following paragraph.

It is acknowledged by Contractor that information to be furnished is in all respects confidential in nature, other than information which is in the public domain through other means and that any disclosure or use of same by Contractor, except as provided in this agreement, may cause serious harm or damage to Client and its owners and officers. Therefore, Contractor agrees that Contractor will not use the information furnished for any purpose other than as stated above, and agrees that Contractor will not either directly or indirectly by agent, employee, or representative, disclose this information, either in whole or in part, to any third party; provided, however that (a) information furnished may be disclosed only to those directors, officers and employees of Contractor and to Contractor's advisors of their representatives who need such information for the purpose of evaluating any possible transaction (it being understood that those directors, officers, employees, advisors and representatives shall be informed by Contractor of the confidential nature of such information and shall be directed by Contractor to treat such information confidentially), and (b) any disclosure of information may be made to which Client consents in writing. At the close of negotiations or termination of relationship, Contractor will return to Client all records, reports, documents, and memoranda furnished and will not make or retain any copy thereof.

8. Assistants.

Contractor, at Contractor's expense, may employ such assistants as Contractor deems appropriate to carry out this agreement. Contractor will be responsible for paying such assistants, as well as any expense attributable to such assistants, including income taxes, unemployment insurance and social security taxes, and will maintain workers' compensation insurance for such employees.

9. Equipment and Supplies.

Contractor, at Contractor's own expense, will provide all equipment, tools and supplies necessary to perform the above services, and will be responsible for all other expenses required for the performance of those services.

10. Tax Implications.

Client will issue 1099-misc. at the end of the tax year to all Independent Contractors earning $600.00 or more. It is the sole responsibility of the Contractor to report and pay any applicable State and Federal Taxes.
